HAIL CANADA.
DOMINION OF THE NORTH

Hail Canada! Dominion of the North,
How vast the path whereon thy sun rides forth!
His sweep from stern Atlantic flood
To far Pacific main
Proclaims the bounteous hand of God
Upon thy grand domain.
O Daughter blest! peace, peace be thine,
May Wisdom wreath thy brow with light divine,
And in thy law and council ever shine.

Freemen, rejoice! rejoice that ye are free!
No despot rules,—behold, from sea to sea,
A nation youthful called of God
To rule in equity,
A people bound in brotherhood,
A loyal unity.
Land of the free! for ever wave
Thy flag of freedom which our fathers gave,
Emblem of empire, ever strong and brave.

Northmen, be strong! abhor the traitor stain,
Fear ye no foe, the craven cry disdain,
And if the bold aggressor come
To war on sea or land,
Be true to your beloved home,
And by the empire stand.
O Canada! from shore to shore
Gird on thy strength, and Heaven's arm implore—
God is thy shield, and shall be evermore.
